Vacancy details

content: It is best to have experience in engineering machinery or construction industry. Starting from this week, you are required to run around Tbilisi and visit at least 4 tower crane customers every week. Take photos when you encounter tower cranes, take pictures of the brands, see what competing products there are, and also take photos of projects under construction to record. Communicate tower crane models and requirements with the project and send them to me in the form of weekly reports every Friday.
